Dance Sheet Music Links For SCA Dance

The Big Anthologies: The Pennsic Piles

For non-SCA folk, here's an explanation of what the Pennsic Pile is all about. The Pennsic War is the SCA's biggest annual gathering. As the name implies, there are many activities involving the martial arts. However, the arts and sciences are also well represented. Dance is a particularly big deal. The Pennsic Pile is the online collection of sheet music put together for dance musician throughout the organization to use for practicing so that they are literally all on the same page.

The Pennsic Pile: (they're not all the same)	Pennsic 47 (2018): https://pennsicdance.aands.org/pennsic47/Pile2018.pdf Pennsic 46 (2017): https://pennsicdance.aands.org/pennsic46/PennsicPile46.pdf Pennsic 45 (2018): https://pennsicdance.aands.org/pennsic45/PennsicPile45.pdf
Pennsic 47 Choral Ball:	https://pennsicdance.aands.org/pennsic47/Choral-Ball-Pennsic-47.pdf
Pennsic 47 English Revel:	https://pennsicdance.aands.org/pennsic47/English-Revel-Music-Suppliment.pdf

Individual Arrangers' Pages

Dave Lankford (THL Dafydd Arth):
https://www.musicasub.org/sheet-music/

Steve Hendricks (Master Samuel Piper, OL):
http://sca.uwaterloo.ca/sca/Hendricks/

Paul Butler (Master Arden of Icombe, OL):
http://crab.rutgers.edu/~pbutler/music/

Russell G. Almond (Sayeed Mustapha ibn as-Saqaat al-Muhaddith):
http://www.pbm.com/~lindahl/almond/

Dr. Paul Harrison (Lord Paul de la Ville):
http://www.logarithmic.net/pfh/sca